DEATH ENDS ALL

The Leveler of All Humanity Again Visits Canton,

And Claims One of Her Best and Noblest Citizens.

William McKinley Sr., Father of Ohio's Chief Executive,

Expires at an Early Hour on the Morning of Thankegiving Day ... End of a Lafe of Honesty, Ecbristy and Usefulness,

The work of the esteemed and respected father of Onio's illustrious Governor is finished. He has completed his life's journey. He has traveled the path laid out for all mortality and has entered that orne from whence no travele returns. William McKtoley, Sr. cted at his home on West fuscarawas asreet, this city, at 2:15 o'ctock Thanksgiving morning. Slowly but sure'y had death been a vauc-ing upon bim, notil at the appointed moing upon him, notifiat the appointed moment its cold and clanuny band was laid upon the brow of the sufferer, and the spark of life went out for ver. Sheatly and solemnly the end came. While the city was husned in slumner, and the little body of fainful family friends watched over the suffering, preserve body of him who was soon to be no more among them; in the subth of find was manifested; the patient gave a light gasp for feated: the patient gave a light gasp for breath and all was over.

Mr. McKinley was eighty five years of age, and has death was peaceful and quiet, in graceful conformity to the screnity his long and metal life. For a couple of weeks he has been suffering and his death, while it casts a gloom over the households of his family connections and will infuse a feeling of sympathy into the heart of every citizen of the nation who hears the sad news, was not unexpected. His advanced age made the task of prolonging life doubly difficult and although everything possible was done to keep the connection between body and soul, yet the wear of eight five years incessint labor upon the vital forces of the body had supped their vigor and strength and at ast the wheels of the machinery of life ceased to move.

Throughout his sickness be has been attended by his faithful wife, who for six yeight years has shared his joys and sorrows, by his son who bears his name and who now occupies the chair of the chief executive of this state, by his son Abner McKinley of New York and other family connections, On Nov. 21 he celebrated the eight-fifth annivers ry of his birth and on the 22nd of last April he assisted in honoring with a family party the eighty-third birthday

Mr. M. Kioley was one of the most respected curins of Canton. He was of Scotch-Irish blood on his father's side, white his mother was of English birth. His grandfather, David, came to America when twelve years old. He served in the war of the revolution and was persioned by the government. Mr. McKinley was born in Mercer county. Pennsylvania in 1897. Two years after his birth his father moved to Ohio, and his birth his father moved to Ohio, and was for many years manager of the blast furnace at New Lisbon, Columbiana county, owned by Gldeon Hughes. On January 29, 1843, in what would now be considered a small two story house, but which at that time was looked upon as almost a mansion, in Niles, Trumbuli county, the presant Governor was born. The village at that time contained prob bly three number inhabitants. Mr. M Kinley, Sr., was a manufacturer, of iron and a pioneer in that business. Four sons were born to him. The elder, David, died at San Francisco during the recent campaign, while serving as Consul General from the Hawaiian Islands to the United States. His second son, James died abou three years apo. The third son is now Governor of Colo, while the fourth, Abner, is located in New York city. His daughter, Miss Anna McKinley, who for over a fifth of a century held a responsible position in is here, died a few ago belowed and respected by thousands.

Mr. McKinley was an Iron moder by trade, the worked at his father's furnace at New Liebon. There is yet standing in at New Lands. There is yet attending in Steubenville, O., an obli from mill where he was engag d. I. 1821 he married Anna Campbell Alitson, a German-Scotch young woman, at her home, four miles from New Labor, on the Salem read, He established an iron foundry at Fairfield, Columbiana county, about 1845. For twenty years be managed and was inter-ested in iron furnaces at New Wilmington, Pa., just across the Outo line. From ther he moved with his family to Poland, O that they might avail themselves of edu-tional advantages of Poland Academy Shortly after this beengaged with SO Edison, uncle of the loventor, Thos. A. Edison, for the construction of large iron mills at Black River, near Lorsio, O. During his engagement there he took up his residence with his femily in Canton, his residence with his femily in Canton, in 1869, intending to retire from active business then at the wishes of his sons, but he again invested in and managed large from mill interests at Caseville, near Saginaw, Mich., up to 1876. Since then, Saginaw, Mich., up to 1876. Since then though not in active business, until three weeks ago, he scarcely missed a day from weeks ago, he scarcely intesed a day from his office in this city, so exact were his business habits, and indeed after his health compelled confinement to his home he insisted on directing his business affairs to the last. One of the oldest residents of this city, he was universally ad mired. He was a modes, unassuming man. To the end he was a close observer of public affairs. Throughout his life he was a great reader and assidnous attudent. Besides his aged wife his immediate curviving family are Governor McKinley, Mr. Abner McKinley of New York, Mrs. Ducan of Youngstown and Miss Helen McKinley of this city. No private citizen of Canton was more generally respected and beloved than William McKinley, Sr. His career of long business activity was one in a thousand and as a neighbor and a friend and in public spirit none were his peer.

STORY OF A DOG.

An Important Legal Controversy at Uniontown Thanhegiving Day. A very exciting lawsuit took place or Thanksgiving day in Justice J. H. Stull's court at Uniontown. The case was a pe-culiar one and of much interest to the porting men. About ten days ago J. H. sporting men. About ten days ago J. H. Foley, of this city, loaned a very fine English setier to a man named Brown, who, with several others, went to Unioutown to hunt. While there the hotel man, John Boss, saw the dog and seems to have thought it would be a nice thing to be the owner of such a dog himself. Instead of learning if the dog could be bought he claimed that the animal belonged to him claimed that the animal belonged to him and in this way secured a replevin. This placed the owner, Mr. Foley, in a had light, and as he did not wish to lose so fine adog, fought the case. Through his attor-ley he demanded a jury. The case was of much importance to the boys in the west and and that the dog was a general fav-orite is shown by the fact that about forty of them went up to testify for his owner The case begun at 10 a. m. and at 7 o'clock the jury returned a verdict in favor of Foley and awarded him damages to the amount of $10.

A DIVORCE SUIT

Grows Out of a West End Sansation. A crisis was reached in the west end sensation Saturday afternoon. It will be remembered that last summer the News-DEMOCRAT contained a report that the wife of Louis C. Spangler had abandoned her home and gone off to Missouri to be with a young fellow tramed Ed. Deckman, who had formerly resided here. The woman teturned in the course of a couple of weeks and denied that she had gone off to see Deckman. It was not long, however, after she came back until Deck man showed up here and went to stay with her and her husband at their restau-rant on West Tuscarawas street. In the course of a few weeks Spangler ejected the fellow and on Saturday afterneon, through his attorneys, Clark & Ambier, he flied a petition for divorce from his wife. He alleges, infidelity, cruelty and neglect on the part of his wife.

Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into fever. WON A WIFE.

HUMPHREY STEELE BET THAT CLEVE. LAND WOULD BE ELECTED

And Miss Carrie Sayers Bet That He Wouldn't, the Wager Being Her Hand in Marriage-Carrie Gracefully Paid the Bet.

Chicago Inter Ocean.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey Steele, of Can-ton, O., are at the Great Northern. They are a newly married coupts. In fact, they have been married since Grover Cieve-land's elects n to the Presidency. Humble citizens though they be, their future weal or woe was made dependent upon the re-sult of the election on November 8, 1892. Mr. Steele has for a long time been perately in love with Miss Carrie Sayres. She says so and he doesn't deny it. He is a Democrat and she was a Republican. She said:

"We were married Monday, Mr. Steele "We were married Monday, air. Steele had asked me to be his wife three times, and three times I refused. It was not because I disliked him, for I don't, do I Humphrey?" Humphrey said something that hight have been anything, and she went on: "But I had made up my mind to live and die an old maid. I have been a school teacher for a number of years and believed I was fitted for a different misson in life than to get married, but you know the old saying, 'Man proposes and God dispesses,' Here I am married and bave given up my school. "West, as I was asying, I refused Mr.

Steele three times. The poor man really got thin." If Mrs. Steele didn't exaggerate here her acceptance of Mr. Steele has had a remarkable effect, for he weight over two hundred pounds. "We siways," she continued, "quarreled over politics. He's a free trader and I am a protectionist. am only a womat, but I have studied it ust about as much as he has, and know ust as much about it."

"She dou't know the first principle—"
Now, Mr. Seele, we won't have an argument here before a stranger."

That settled it. They didn't.
Taking up the broken thread again, Mrs.
Steele said: "I was sure that Mr. Harrison was going to be elected, and Mr. Steele was sure that Mr. Clevsland would be.
We each became so positive during the last week of the campaignent that we camp last week of the campaign that we came near never speaking to each other again. He couldn't stand that, so be suggested that we would have no more discussions until after election. He was real sweet that evening, and proposed the fourth time. I felt foolishly soft myself, and so, not to dis courage him absolutely, I proposed that we make a bet. If his candidate, Mr. Claveland, won, I was to marry him if Mr. Harrison won, he wasn't to even make love to me for six months.

"You see I was sure that Mr. Harrison would win. My father and my brother said so, and so did every one else in our town no, and so did every one else in our town. I thought I would win, and would still have him hoping for the future and to go out with and all that sort of thing. But I lost, and don't you know I am not one bit sorty yet. Of course we can't tell yet what may happen in the future. The day may come when we will both hate Mr. Cleveland for being elected.

"Do you know," she concluded, "I didn't want to get'married, but I think lots of girls are not very smart. Many of of girls are not very smart. Many of them who will never be married might have had a chance if they had bet one way or the other." NOT FROM CANTON.

Local reporters were unable to find any relatives of the parties named in the foregoing, in Canton. It is thought they reside in Tuscarawas county, as some mention of a case of that nature was made in newspapers at the time the couple were

THE CASE OF CALVIN ROACH.

He Confirms Ali That the News-Democrat Said About His Case .-- He Says the G. A. R at Waynesburg is Run by the Corn Stack Militia -- He Gives Some More Pointers That Point.

Near the close of the campaign, Calvin Rosen, a poor old disabled soldier, appeared at the office of the NEWS-DEMO-CRAT, in a most deplorable condition. its appearance indicated extreme erry, and his clothes bung in rags and tat-ters upon his emaciated form. His ap-pearance appeared to our sympathy. We examined his papers and found he had been a soldier for over two years, and that he was only drawing $2 per month pension. He is also the father of three children, all under 15 years of age. We printed Mr. Roach's statement at the time, with his assertion that the G. A. R. post of Waynesburg had cut off his allowance of 3 per month from the county relief fund, because he voted for Gov. Warwick in-stead of Major McKinley. Soon after Calvin Rosen made his statement the editor of the News-Demo-CHAT received a letter from Col. Shane of Waynesburg, in which he denied Calvin Roach's statement. This corre-we also made, as soon as the letter This correction received, which was previous to the elec-

And now, on this 28th day of November' Calviu Rosch comes into the NEWS-DEM-OCRAT office, and says everything origina ally stated in the NEWS-DEMOCRAT is true, and that our statements were not as strong as they ought to have been. Mr. Roach says his relief was taken from him be-cause he is a Democrat, and he further states that the Grand Army at Waynes. burgh is run as a political machine, in the interest of the Republican party. He says a majority of the members of Waynes burgh Post are only corn stalk militia-men, who did no service, and that nearly all of them are drawing big pensions. He mentioned the names of several of this class. He says Geo. Beatty, who owns 500 acres of land, and is a very healthy man, who was only out two weeks during the entire war, and then went as a subs or a 90 days man, and only got as far as drawing $20 deatfor a 90 days man, and only got as far as Cincinnati, is now drawing $20 per month pension, for deafness and chronic diarrhoes. He mentions William Lowry, who was only in the corn stalk militia during the war, is drawing $12 per month pension. Calvin Roach says Lowry told him if I did not vote the Republican ticket I should not have any pension. Mr. Roach also mentioned Samuel Hissen, who was only out 30 days and who is now getting $17 per out 90 days and who is now getting $17 per month pension. Mr. Roach is very indignant over his treatment by the G. A. R. at Waynesburg. Dr. George B. Cock, who heard Calvin Roach's statements when here in October, took his case in hand, and has secured an increase of his pension to 88 per month.

THE MAJOR'S FUTURE.

CONSIDERABLE SPECULATION REGARD-ING HIS PLANS.

Some Democrats Who Would Like to Be Governor, etc. Special to the Plain Dealer,

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 -Since the election much interest less attached bere to the future course of G vernor McKinley with reference to the gubernatorial nomination next year. Almost every promi-neut Republican has taken occasion since the Waterloo to may hard things about the author of the present tar if taw and some of them who were but a few moons ago lauding McKinleyam into the cerulian blue have been unkind enough to use the mantle of the Ohio Napoleon as a door mat. No one is whiting to share with him Even Tom Reed, who was the architect in design, if not in construction, of every piece of legislation that went through his Congress from the McKinley tariff bull to the Lodge-Davesport force bill, contemp-tuously flings a brick into the Major's back yard in referring to the recent discaver.

The Major is simply suffering the pen-alty of greatness—greatness dethroned. The Republican party of the country, speaking through nine out of ten of its leaders, has emphatically declared that the protection system as embodied in the present law—'ckinieyism in other words—cannot longer be defended. With the shandonment of McKinieyism would come the natural abandonment of McKiniey. But it requires two to make a bargain, and the Major may not be willing to let so.

Should be accept nomination and be again elected Governor of Obio it would give him the only personal vindication he can obtain and raise him as it were Phos-nix like from his own nahes. The Onio Democrats here, of course, would like to see him run.

If McKinley decides to make the race the question of the Democratic candidate will be an interesting one and is already being discussed. It is not probable that ex Gov. Campbell will care for a renomiex Gov. Campbell will care for a renomination, even should be secure it, a third nomination being an unprecedented thing in Ohio politics. There is plenty of gubernatorial timber in Ohio. There is Gen. Sam Hunt of Ciucinnati, "Larry" Neal of Chillicothe, who has twice been a candidate against Campbell for the nomination, Allen W. Thurman of Columbus, the son of the "Old Roman;" Col. William E. Haynes of Fremon, who retires from Haynes of Fremon, who retires from Congress at the end of the coming session and who is ripe for gubernatorial honors; iton. Frank Hurd of Toledo, Representa-tive Outhwaite of Columbus, the deal of the Ohio delegation; Gen. A. V. Rice of Ottawa, Col. James E. Neal of Hamilton, the exchairman of the State committee and the late Democratic caucus nominee for Halfed St. as Sancton 1991. for United States Senator: "Our Own Tom Johnson and many others. Of these, perhaps, "Larry" Neal, Frank Hurd and Representative Outhwaite are the only ones who are at present looking forward actively to the convention next June.

DORA IS A WIFE.

THE AKRON ATTORNEYS PRACTICALLY AGREE ON THAT POINT.

John Neal's Divorce Conceded to be Genuine, But Does Not Affect Property Rights-Neal's Mother to Adopt the Babe Who Caused the Trouble.

A NEWS DEMOCRAT man was in Akron couple of hours this morning and took occasion to investigate concerning the disposition of the case commenced in Justice Anterson's court in that city, October 22, by Mary S. Neal, against John Neal, for support of their infant child.

Neal, it will be remembered, married pretty Mary Selfuth, a sixteen year old girl, under duress, left her immediately afterwards, skipped to Colorado, resided there for seven months and obtained a divorce. When he returned, feeling himdivorce. When he returned, feeting min-self free from all allegiance to the Akron giri whom he had first ruined and then married and desert d, he came to Canton, renewed his devotion to Dora Barnett, daughter of James Bernett, residing two miles east of this city on the Georgetown road, and about fair time, married her at

New Philadelpana, Tuscarawas county.
When the case of Mary Neal against John Neal came up in Squire Anderson's court in Akron, the validity of the divorce was questioned, that being the grounds set up by the defense to offset the claim of Mary Neal against John, for support. A jury of twelve men decided that so far as that court was concerned. John was as that court was concerned. John guilty of non support and was fined $25 and costs on that charge. The divorce was admitted in eviderce, the justice of the peace before whom the case was tried declining to so tack of the records.
